Blank Screen

The larger the images, the longer it takes to view them on your browser. Until the images completely load, you will see only a blank screen. Some computers are so fast you never see a blank screen, while others may have a minute or two of blank screen before the images load. It all depends on your modem speed. A 14.4K modem is slower than say, a broadband (cable) connection or ISDN.

If you still have a blank screen after 5 minutes, then your browser is having a few issues, so you will need to close your browser completely (by clicking on the x in the very top right corner). Then open it up again, and log back into our Members Section. This should clear up the browser's problem.

Printing A Blank Page

A blank page will print if you do not have your margins set correctly, or your background colors are not on.

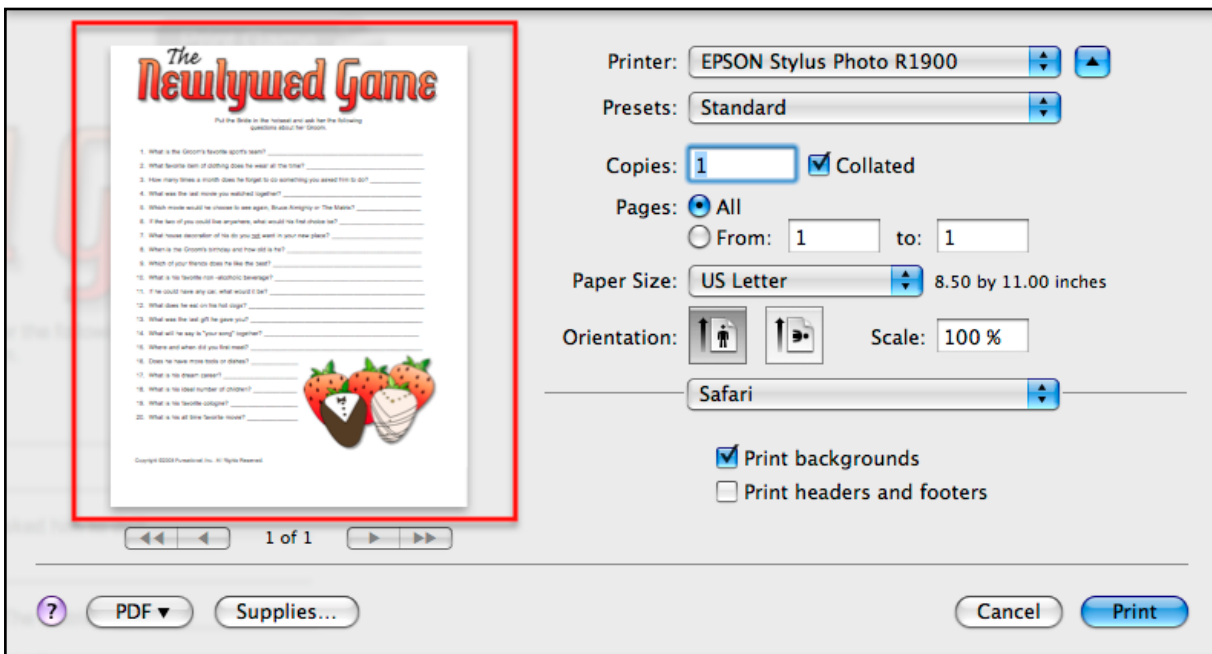

1. Click the 'Print Game' icon in the upper right hand corner of your game

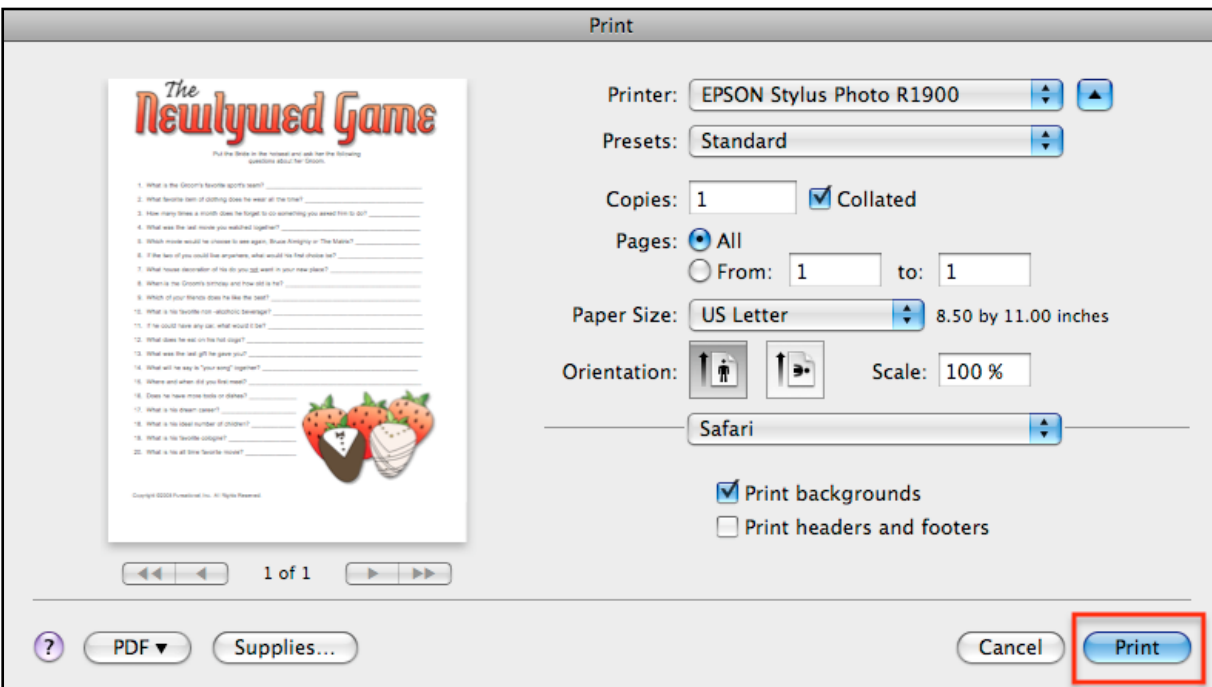

2. If you do not see the small picture of the page you would like to print, select the blue arrow just to the right of the Printer box specifying which printer you are using.

3. View the small picture image on the screen.

4. If looks correct, press 'Print'.

5. If it looks incorrect, press 'Cancel' and change your margins or background colors.
